

NSMCH BIHTA PATNA
COMMUNITY MEDICINE

➤ COMMUNITY MEDICINE LABORATORY

The laboratory in the Department of Community Medicine NSMCH Bihta, Patna; typically focuses on research, education, and community health initiatives.

The key functions and aspects:

1. Research and Training: Conducting studies on public health issues, disease prevention, and health promotion strategies.
2. Data Collection and Analysis: Gathering and analyzing epidemiological data to inform health policies and practices.
3. Community Engagement: Implementing outreach programs to educate communities about health issues and preventive measures.
4. Health Assessments: Performing health assessments and surveys to identify community health needs.
5. Collaboration: Working with local health authorities, NGOs, and other stakeholders to improve community health outcomes.
6. Workshops and Seminars: Organizing training sessions for healthcare professionals and community workers on various public health topics.